David's Hair

David's hair is very long. David does not want his hair to be long anymore. He wants his hair to be short.

David goes to the barber. He asks the barber to cut his hair. The barber cuts David's long hair, making it very short.

When David sees his new haircut in the mirror, he feels disappointed. He does not like his short hair. He wants his hair to be long again.

David asks the barber to make his hair long. The barber says he cannot help him. The barber says that he can cut hair to make it short, but he cannot make it long.

David goes to the store and buys a hat.
