

Federal Funding & Assistance

ReadTheory is committed to improving learning outcomes and opportunities for all students and meets ESSA Tier IV requirements.

Title I, Part A Funding - Equitable Access	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Receive comprehensive student assessment data</li> <li>✓ Provide students and teachers with 1000+ rigorous lessons with built in scaffolds and feedback to support every learner.</li> <li>✓ Maximize improvement of student achievement with research based practices.</li> </ul>
Title III Funding - English Language Instruction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Support the diverse language, academic, and social-emotional needs of English Learners with 1,000+ reading comprehension passages and assessments.</li> <li>✓ Focus on reading aloud, reading comprehension, and vocabulary development for English Language Learners.</li> </ul>
ESSER FUNDS (Elementary and Secondary School Emergency Relief Fund)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Address, identify, and improve unfinished learning.</li> <li>✓ Enable research based practices to support the unique needs of all learners.</li> <li>✓ Ensure student motivation and engagement regardless of location (Virtual, hybrid, or in-class.)</li> <li>✓ Support After School, Extended Day, and Summer learning</li> </ul>
Fair School Funding (FSF)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Support academic learning with supplemental classroom materials.</li> <li>✓ Utilize unrestricted funds to be used at the Principal's discretion.</li> </ul>
Federal Magnet Schools Assistance Program (FMSAP)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Promote equity and inclusion in the classroom with adaptive, leveled passages for each student</li> </ul>